BATTLEFIELD

Reach beyond and through the sphere of experience, taking with you the beginnings of awareness that were formed in the community of Mary Washington College.

Mary Washington College • Fredericksburg Virginia

Editor-in-Chief, Barbara Reynolds • Business Manager, Ann Salter

An open gate,
beyond it,
the community
is joined by a network
of intersecting paths . . .

... paths laced by
visions and hopes.

The college is framed by a capricious reality . . .

. . . an inconsistent mood
that is blossoming today.

There is warmth only in the colors of autumn . . .

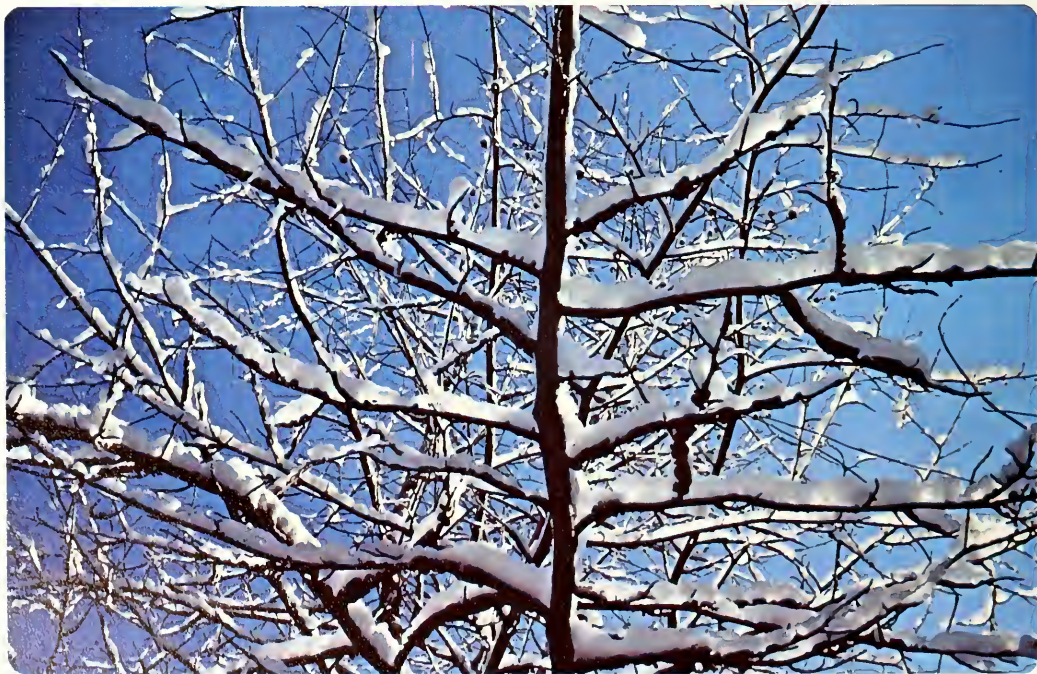

in its hues of red and gold.

Soft winter, quiet velvet . . .
whisper
in the dawn
of such a day.

Faces change
as the calendar circles . . .

... friendship is begun and renewed
yearly in unbroken cycles.

We are pensive,
creating and entertaining
new ideas.

Individualism
is not lost in the community but is nurtured until it grows into a mature confidence. It is something personally unique, a gift of the heart and mind, that each of us can restore to the community.

We will soon follow
the paths of our imagination beyond our present sphere into the reality of other communities.

The 1973 BATTLEFIELD is the result of a year and a half of hard work. It was in the spring of 1972 that this years staff started considering what they wanted in the next yearbook. Throughout the summer and the school year we have worked diligently to prepare the book for publication. Without the kindness and assistance of many people, however, this task could not have been accomplished. Many thanks to Thomas Mann, our advisor, Jim Ellis, our representative from Hunter Publishing Company, and Stevens Studios of Bangor, Maine for their excellent photography. Last, but not least, a very special thanks to my staff, my friends, and Jay for their patience with me this past year.

Barbara
